Welcome to Sawbridgeworth from your Town Council

We appreciate that there is always a lot to do and sort out when you move to a new house or even a new area and we hope we can help by directing you to our website that will give you useful information about the Town.

<http://www.sawbridgeworth-tc.gov.uk>

Your Town Council manages allotments, a bus service and the Cemetery but also arranges community events throughout the year to build a strong community we would like you to become part of.

By joining local groups and attending the Towns events or even becoming a local volunteer you will also play a part to build on Sawbridgeworth's great local feel.

The Town has twelve councillors who are unpaid volunteers who's primary role is to represent their area and the people living or working there. Councillors can listen to views and represent them at council meetings when decisions and plans are being made.

Every year a councillor is appointed as Mayor who chairs the council meetings but also has a ceremonial role that involves taking part in activities including parades, civic receptions and presenting at community groups and events but predominantly maintains the interests of Sawbridgeworth and its people.

This year the Mayor is Councillor Greg Rattey, an avid campaigner for gay rights who is also working with the East Herts Black Parents Assembly to improve opportunities, increase engagement and enrich lives for Black and Biracial Families in the community.

As you settle into the Town there will be lots of volunteering opportunities available from helping to run youth and adult groups, to becoming a Town Councillor.

If you are interested in the work of the Town Council, please come along to one of our monthly meetings which are held in Sayesbury Manor off Bell Street and see what is being discussed and dealt with by the Council.

In the meantime, if you need more information about life in Sawbridgeworth please contact the Town Council offices by phone or email, details above.

I hope you settle into Sawbridgeworth quickly and enjoy the Town as much as we all do.
